

2011 National Plant Board Annual Meeting

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Please join us in spectacular Denver, Colorado from August 7 to August 11, 2011 for the 85th meeting of the National Plant Board. The Curtis – a Doubletree Hotel will be our host and is located just two blocks off Denver's 16th Street pedestrian mall which is filled with restaurants, shopping and cultural activities. This boutique hotel features a fitness center, business center, free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel and a complimentary breakfast buffet is included in your room rate. You can even get a wake-up call from Elvis or Austin Powers.

Rooms will be available in our block for $131.00. Indoor on-site parking is available for $20.00 if you have a car. The meeting room rate will be available for three days before and three days after the meeting in case you want to spend some time vacationing in the mile high city.

A tree pest tour will take place on August 10th, to look at Thousand Cankers Disease and Mountain Pine Beetle.

Denver International Airport is located 45 minutes via interstate highway from downtown Denver. Transportation to and from the airport is available via Super Shuttle for $36 round-trip or $45 for a taxi one-way.

Registration information for the meeting and hotel will be posted at the National Plant Board website soon so mark your calendars now.
